

ANNA STOGA

Class VI

academic year 1946/1947

My memories of the German crimes

In May 1944, one of the farmers went home in the evening before 9:00 pm. That was when we were not allowed to be outside, at the time [we were only allowed to walk around] until 9 pm. [Some] Germans arrived in their cars. They saw [this] man on the road between Micigózd and Piekoszów. They stopped the car and killed the farmer. The Germans thought that only they were people and that Poles were dogs. They were only looking for opportunities to kill people. There were many such German crimes throughout Poland. They set up a criminal factory in Oświęcim [Auschwitz].